

M-INVESTMENT CLUB PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT

As a precondition to becoming a Partner in the M-Investment Club (hereinunder "MIC" for brevity), in the case of prospective new members, or to remaining a Partner in MIC, in the case of existing Partners, the undersigned agrees to the following rules:

1. He/she will abide by the set of By-laws for MIC called General Partnership Bylaws 2004 (hereinunder, "BYLAWS"), including any amendments or extensions through the date of his/her signature hereto.
2. He/she agrees to either accept any future BYLAWS amendments or extensions as they get adopted by MIC, or to terminate his/her Partnership in MIC forthwith.
3. His/her continuing Partnership in MIC shall be a binding affirmation of continuing acceptance of the cumulative BYLAWS, disclaimers to the contrary notwithstanding.
4. He/she understands in general the risks of amateur investments, and the responsibilities of general partnerships, and accepts the corresponding risk and responsibility of being an MIC partner.
5. Any claim or complaint for remedy or damages or other legal proceedings under civil law that he/she makes on any MIC Partner, or on any group of MIC Partners, or on MIC as a whole, which is in any way connected with MIC, shall be adjudicated by binding arbitration only, as follows:
 - He/she shall defray all costs of arbitration, unless the Arbitrator specifically directs otherwise;
 - Arbitration proceedings venue shall be selected by the Chairman of the Management Committee, generally to suit the convenience of the defendant Partner(s);
 - Arbitrator shall be a member of the American Arbitration Society;
 - Arbitrator shall be selected by a referral from the American Arbitration Society;
6. He/she agrees to honor Rule 5 (Arbitration of Complaints) permanently, even after he/she terminates Partnership in MIC.
